General information

I can provide extensive political advice on a wide range of subjects and create an overall concept for a policy which protects both the individual rights to freedom and our natural fundamentals of life. My main focus is in fact on educational, environmental and health policies but the different fields are always to be understood in connection with each other and as interdependent. For this reason, I also integrate other subjects, such as agricultural, financial, family, social, defence, and energy policies into my overall concept.

Main focus of my consultation

1. Environmental and health protection:

- a. Far-reaching reduction of toxins in everyday life, in particular through effective protection of non-smokers and the promotion of natural methods of hygiene and personal care.
- b. Promotion of a healthy and natural diet, in particular raw food.
- c. Promotion of biological-organic and biological-dynamic agriculture and permaculture.
- d. Assurance of regional self-sufficiency with high-quality produce, in particular by promoting private and commercial gardening and fruit tree orchards.
- e. Promotion of efficient systems to avoid waste and recycling of waste.
- f. Ban on cultivation, processing, and sale of genetically modified foods.
- g. Ban on cultivation, processing, sale, and use of tobacco. (You can find more details of this on my website www.passivesmoking.org.)
- h. Energy generation conducive to the environment and health.
- i. Promotion of ecological and raw food oriented projects and communities.

2. Animal rights:

- a. Motivation of people to treat animals compassionately.
- b. Promotion of natural animal husbandry with sufficient room for the animals to move and feed appropriate to the species.
- c. Ban on unnatural factory farming.
- d. Ban on cruel slaughter methods and unnecessary animal transports.
- e. Promotion of a vegetarian diet.

You can find more details of this on my website www.campaign4animalwelfare.com.

3. Protection of men:

- a. Measures to end discrimination of fathers in matters of child custody.
- b. End to discrimination of men in working life by abolishing the women's quota.
- c. Abolition of government constraints concerning support and alimony, to be replaced by an unconditional basic income.

You can find more details of this on my website www.campaign4mensrights.com.

4. Educational freedom:

- a. Equality of home-schooling, learning by doing, auto-didacticism, online further training and other forms of education with schools and universities.
- b. Free competition in education by ending subsidies for schools and universities, as these are favoured while other non-subsidised forms of education are discriminated against at the same time.
- c. Subsidies only in the form of an unconditional basic income which would enable people of all ages to choose their type of education and work freely.

You can find more details of this on my website www.campaign4homeschooling.com.

5. Financial, fiscal and social policy:

- a. Replacement of all so-called “social benefits”, which are bureaucratically manipulative, externally determined and detrimental to free agency by an unconditional basic income for people of all ages.
- b. Minimization or abolition of taxes and a radical simplification of the tax system – e.g. replacement of all taxes not connected to a specific purpose such as income tax, trade tax, gift tax etc. by a consumption tax. The aim must be to simplify and minimize compulsory state levies as far as possible and ideally to eliminate them completely and find other ways to finance public services than through taxation. You can find more about taxation on my website www.campaign4taxfreedom.com.
- c. A fundamental redesign of the financial system with consideration of ethical points of view.

Requirements, methodology and goals

To implement these goals I will advise you on suitable general political conditions and, in addition, I can also conduct appropriate campaigns.

However, it is a requirement first to make a thorough analysis of the national situation. I do not follow any rigid dogma or try to adapt reality to such, but I elaborate a concept specific to you, which is oriented towards the situation in your country and then optimizes the general political conditions with the aim of achieving an ethical, cultural and ecological upturn and a perceptible increase in quality of life for as many people, animals and plants as possible.

My services are available worldwide. They are addressed to both politicians and parties and also to politically active people and citizens' initiatives as well as environmental, health, animal rights and other associations.

You can find more about my political concepts, views and standpoints on my website www.politics4liberty.com.

I work freelance as a political consultant, home and online teacher and life coach and consultant with the main focus on health, natural lifestyle, crisis management, education, basic computing, business and emigration. Furthermore, I have worked as an author since my youth and as an editor and publishing director since 2000.

I have published articles above all on passive smoking but also on other subjects in various German and foreign magazines. I am the author of the following books:

„KÖRPERVERLETZUNG DURCH PASSIVRAUCHEN - FOLGEN DES ZWANGSMITRAUCHENS UND SCHUTZGESETZE“ [BODILY HARM FROM PASSIVE SMOKING - CONSEQUENCES OF ENFORCED PASSIVE

SMOKING AND PROTECTION LAWS], „AKTIV GEGEN PASSIVRAUCHEN - VORLAGEN ZUR DURCHSETZUNG DER NICHTRAUCHERRECHTE AUF MEDIZINISCHER UND JURISTISCHER GRUNDLAGE“ [ACTIVE AGAINST PASSIVE SMOKING - FORMS FOR ENFORCING NON-SMOKERS' RIGHTS ON A MEDICAL AND LEGAL BASIS] and „NICHTRAUCHERRECHTE - PASSIVRAUCHOPFER IN DEUTSCHLAND“ [NON-SMOKERS' RIGHTS - VICTIMS OF PASSIVE SMOKING IN GERMANY]. Numerous print media and radio and television broadcasters have reported on me and, in particular, on my activities for non-smoker protection.
